DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Dr. Mohamed Ali Mohamoud

Director of University of Bosaso - Garowe

Dear graduates,

It is with great joy and pride that we celebrate the 6th graduation ceremony. Since you joined the UOBG fraternity, graduating has been at the very top of your priorities and I am glad you have finally reached this milestone which I believe would have been beyond reach had it not been for the tenacity, endurance and hard work that you exhibited during your studies.

Your stay at UOB-G has been a demonstration of commitment, creativity and talent needed to grow not only you but our entire society for the better and your unwavering enthusiasm amidst adversity including the unprecedented outbreak of Coronavirus are a clear manifestation of your potential and zeal which undoubtedly will take you a long way in your future endeavors.

Over the course of your program, you have developed lifelong and valuable friendships and networks, I embolden you to utilize them as you undertake your future roles in Society and let today mark the beginning of the rise to your glory. Upon your graduation, you have become a valued member of our vibrant UOBG alumni. Therefore, I urge you to continue fostering the cordial relationship with UOBG to which you have dedicated so much time, hard work and energy.

The entire University of Bosaso-Garowe (UOBG) fraternity wishes you the very best on this important occasion and years to come.

Finally, I would like to congratulate the parents, guardians and families of the graduates who have sacrificed immensely. With utmost gratitude, I inform them that their sacrifices were not in vain. I also extend my heartfelt appreciation to all university administration and lecturers who have rendered limitless support and counsel to our students during their academic journey with us.

You are our champions! I wish you every success as you mark your graduation.

DEAN'S MESSAGE

Mohamed Abdulluahi

Faculty of Science & Technology

On behalf of the staff and faculty of the Science and technology it is my great pleasure to offer you our congratulations on your graduation from University of Bosaso-Garowe. It is been our privilege to assist you on your journey from high school graduate to credentialed, young professionals.

I would also like to give special thanks to the parents, spouses and friends of our graduates for their patience, understanding, sacrifices and support – both moral and financial – during these challenging, but rewarding, years at the university.

We will truly miss you but look forward to learning of your successes as you move through your career. Congratulations again to the graduates of our under graduate programs. The entire UOBG Family is very proud of you.

DEAN'S MESSAGE
Mohamoud Mohamed
Faculty of Social Science

As a dean of the faculty of social science, I would like first to recognize and congratulate you for the extraordinary efforts you made every semester which had offered unique challenges and a great deal of uncertainty. All of you, the Faculty of Social Sciences graduates, have opportunities created by the combination of your own endeavors and your education through those endeavors at a fine university.

Thus, as you have much to hope for and much to give, I am sure that you will contribute a lot to the social development of our country. I also hope you know that you have today the knowledge, the preparation, the experience and the credentials to succeed in anything you may want to achieve in your career.

So I am sincerely sure that it is the right time to go out there and make all of your fellow lecturers and parents proud. We can't wait to hear about your future accomplishments and I once again congratulate you all on your achievements.
